

Dear Mrs. Raff:

I saw in to-nights
paper, an engagement announced which interested me greatly - both on account of knowing both parties and also of knowing their interest in each other.

I think it perfectly splendid - for you surely will appreciate some one looking after you, and Dr.

Nasmith is certainly the man to do that, also having such interest and sympathy with the school, he can so enter into all your pet schemes and desires -

May I wish you "just a little extra happiness" with health to enjoy it - for you still stand

"ideal" in many respects to me.

Very much love,
Josephine.

46 Barton Ave,
Toronto.

Sunday Evening

My dear Emma

My thoughts have been with you all day. If I could only say something to comfort you but your sorrow is too deep for me to even try to tell you how we both sympathize with you & your family

I could not let myself think you had to give Marie up until Margaret came home & told me all you were living through - I received both yours & Dorothy's letters, dear child give her my love - this is a very great & real sorrow for her If we can be of any use I hope you will let us know to be of some use is the only way of showing you our loving sympathy

Your loving friend

Margaret Crease

Mrs. George Washburn

41 Ariel Road

Toronto

Canada

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.